

Joanne O'Donnell

Certified Dewey Color Consultant Instructor

Joanne O'Donnell is very excited about being affiliated with the highly acclaimed Certified Dewey Color Consultant course. She will be training primarily in the western United States. Be sure to check the Southwest Region training schedule for a complete list of her upcoming classes.

Joanne currently teaches the Certified Staging Professional (CSP) course. She has been training home stagers in the business and techniques of home staging since 2002. Previously, Joanne taught the Accredited Staging Professional (ASP) course for over three years.

She is a past charter member of the International Association of Home Staging Professionals (IAHSP) and is a well respected leader in the staging industry.

Joanne has been doing color consultations, home staging, and redesigning for quality homes in the San Francisco Bay Area since early 2002. She is now sharing the knowledge and experience she gained building her company, Chic Home Interiors, with her Certified Dewey Color Consultant candidates.

O'Donnell attended the University of Illinois for both her undergraduate and graduate studies, and also brings 25 years of solid business and corporate training experience as a Human Resource Manager and Executive Recruiter.

Her design training includes:

- Certified Dewey Color Consulting Instructor (CDCCI)
- Certified Staging Professional Trainer (CSPT)
- One Day Staging Professional (ODSP)
- House Doctor Property Presentation (HDPP)
- Accredited Staging Professional Trainer (ASPT)
- Master and Certified Home Marketing Specialist (HMS)

Sign up to join one of Joanne's upcoming classes – we promise it will be fun and educational, and provide all the tools necessary to start your Certified Dewey Color Consultant business!
